IV. Old Business / Tabled Items from Previous Meeting

1. Journey Through Screening and Beyond Materials

Final review of updated 1-3-6 materials:

- Newborn hearing screening & rescreen if needed
- 3-month: Follow-up evaluation / diagnostic hearing evaluation (no “complete”)
- 6-month: Begin early intervention services (include AzEIP reference)
- Ensure simplified, family-friendly wording throughout
- Accessibility supports (phone, website, QR code)

Key Language Updates:

- Goal: Detect and address hearing differences early so babies can develop language
- Use “EHDI (Early Hearing Detection and Intervention)”
- Remove “speech” → focus on “language”
- Replace “priorities” with “what works best for your family”
- Use “options” instead of “opportunities”

2. Family Survey Initiative

- Final English, ASL, and Spanish versions
- April postcard distribution update
- QR code and access review
- Incentive (stroller organizer)
- Accessibility confirmation

3. Family Resource Booklet

- Content streamlining and accuracy updates
- Timeline and resource alignment
- Reduced information overload
- Final formatting review

4. Newborn Screening Videos 5 & 6 – Production & Refilming Updates

Follow-up on video production and ASL interpretation revisions

Update from Co-Chair (Latrina Harris-Lewis):

Latrina Harris-Lewis has emailed updated guidance to the production team based on ACDHH and EHDI Advisory Committee feedback regarding filming and interpretation improvements.

Key Updates:

- ASL interpretation reviewed through Deaf-led consultation during live/recorded performance
- Required on-set Deaf Advisory participation:
 - Latrina Harris-Lewis
 - Amber Hansen
 - Bibi Ashley
- Cameo to serve as ASL/CDI consultant (consultation role only)
- Inclusion of Black woman ASL/English interpreter for voiceover representation
- ACDHH to support English script review for clarity and wording
- Additional ASL interpreter support on set for access

Production Focus:

- ASL pacing, accuracy, and emotional tone alignment
- Interpreter affect and expression consistency
- Consideration of selective re-recording
- Interpreter selection and preparation improvements
- Budget considerations acknowledged
